

Summer Complaint.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a serious attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pulley left Monday for their home in Houston, Texas, after an extended visit in this city with Mrs. Pulley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Curtis.

Misses Tillie and Pearl Bour went to St. Louis Sunday evening for a two weeks' visit.

Stomach and Liver Troubles.

No end of misery and actual suffering is caused by disorders of the stomach and liver, and may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

James Deblin went to St. Louis Sunday evening on business.

Miss Emma Weis went to St. Louis Sunday evening for a weeks' visit.

Chronic Constipation.

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the plain printed directions that accompany each package.

Mrs. M. E. Holliday went to Odessa Monday for a visit.

Miss Elizabeth Stromberg went to Kansas City Monday for a visit.

Miss Percy Aull left Tuesday morning for a visit in Charleston, Mo.

John Johnson who has been visiting at the home of Peter Stromberg, left Monday morning for San Francisco, Cal.

RED CROSS TREATS ENEMY WOUNDED

Knowns No Such Thing as the Nationality of a Wounded Man.

Many questions have arisen as to the attitude of the American Red Cross toward Germans wounded on the battle field and also toward Americans of German origin affiliating themselves with Red Cross hospital units going abroad. To make clear the attitude of the Red Cross, Henry P. Davison, chairman of the war council, authorized the following statement:

When war was declared between the United States and Germany the neutrality of the American Red Cross, of course, ended automatically. The American Red Cross can cooperate only behind the lines of the armies of the United States and its allies.

But the Red Cross knows no such thing as the nationality of a wounded man. Any wounded enemy turned over to the care of the American Red Cross will receive as kindly treatment as any friend.

The Red Cross will not only extend every aid and comfort to the armies of America and its allies, but it will assist in every possible way the sick, wounded, and afflicted among the civilian populations among our allied countries. This is in conformity with the practice of the Red Cross Society in every country.

No Distinction Between Americans.

Cross in this country toward those of German origin:

The Red Cross knows no difference and makes no distinction between any American citizen.

In so far as base hospital units are concerned, the Red Cross equips and enlists the personal of those to be sent to Europe to operate not only with our own armies but with those of our allies. Once enlisted and mustered into service, these units become part of the Army of the United States, and there is of course no discrimination by the Red Cross or the American Army against any loyal American citizen, no matter of what national origin.

Our allies in Europe, however, have requested the American State Department not to permit persons born in an enemy country, to travel as civilians in any of the allied countries. Representations, however, have been made by the Red Cross, which it is hoped will ultimately prove effective, whereby loyal American citizens on Red Cross service, may be exempted from the operation of this rule, no matter what the country of their origin.

The Red Cross wants it clearly understood that it welcomes the cooperation of every loyal American, and that it does not regard that loyalty as measured by the country of his origin.
